PICTORIAL & HISTORY BOOK

GOOD NEWS! DEADLINE EXTENDED!

BE A PART OF BALTIMORE CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT HISTORY!

The Baltimore City Fire Department has joined forces with Turner Publishing Company, the leader in police, fire and military commemorative histories, to publish a full color, library quality, hardbound book that will document the remarkable history of the Baltimore City Fire Department and honor the men and women who have served.

An interesting history (the first of its kind) of the Baltimore City Fire Department, exciting personal stories and full color photos of all personnel will be featured in this upcoming publication. The large 9 x 12 inch, coffee-table style volume will also include award and medal recipients as well as special tributes to those who have died in the line of duty.

This is your opportunity to be a part of this once in a lifetime publication. Photos of all officers and personnel from future photo sessions will automatically be included. In addition, you are encouraged to submit any photograph that relates to Baltimore City Fire in general. Action photos are preferred. When sending photos, please write your name, address and a caption on the back, explaining who and what is in the photo. All materials will be returned after publication.

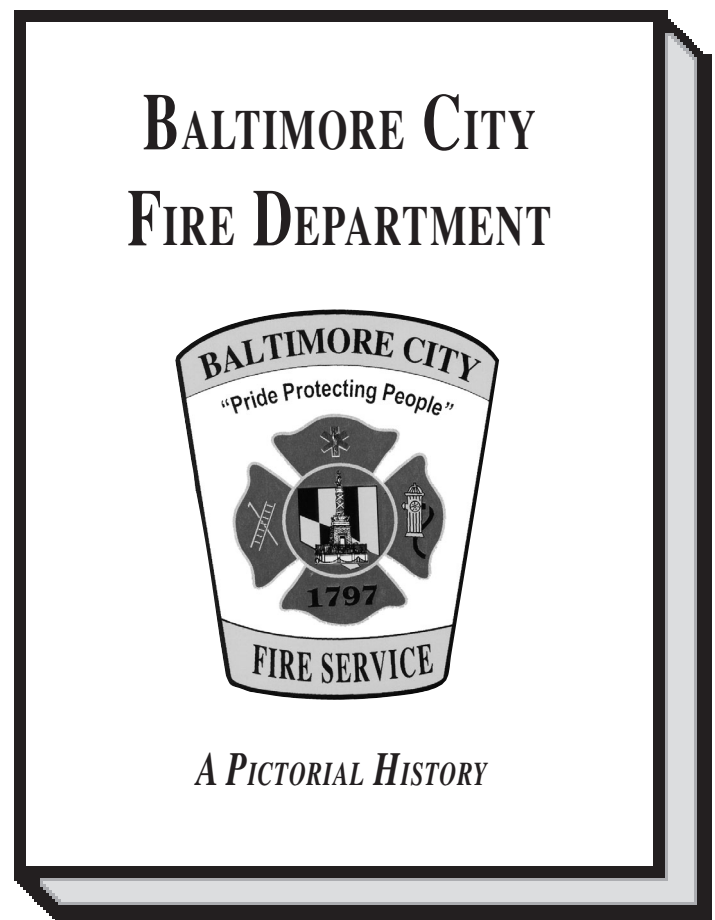

We encourage each one of you to participate in this historic project and reserve your own copy of this limited edition commemorative book at the special pre-sale price of only $55.00. You must order now to be assured of receiving a copy.

William J. Goodwin, Jr.
Fire Chief

Sincerely,

Michael M. Maybin
Assistant Public Information Officer
